

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: What Are Social Problems and What Do Sociologists Do About Them?	1
Chapter 1. Do We Make the World or Does the World Make Us? Concepts and Theories	23
Chapter 2. Who Has, Who Doesn't? Looking for Answers to Poverty, Inequality, and Homelessness	49
Chapter 3. On the Job: Work, Workers, and the Changing Nature of Labor	83
Chapter 4. Finding Ourselves: Race, Gender, Sexuality, Multiculturalism, and Identity	119
Chapter 5. Be It Ever So Humble: Changing Families in a Changing World	165
Chapter 6. Who Breathes Easy? Protecting and Designing Our Environments	199
Chapter 7. Why Can't Johnny Read? Education in Crisis	241
Chapter 8. What Price Justice? Deviance, Crime, and Building Community	280
Chapter 9. An Apple a Day? Health and Health Care for All	329
Chapter 10. The Whole Wide World Around: Globalization and Its Discontents	371
Index	415
About the Authors	459