

Contents

ANNOTATED CONTENTS	ix
PREFACE	xv
CONTRIBUTORS	xvii
UNDERSTANDING TERRORISM
1. Re-examining 9/11: Could the Terrorist Attacks Have Been Prevented?	1
Did the Clinton administration miss good opportunities to take action against al Qaeda?	4
Did the Bush administration miss telltale clues that might have prevented the 9/11 attacks?	8
Are intelligence reforms needed to better guard against future terrorist attacks?	10
Background	12
Dysfunctional Systems?	12
Frustrating Initiatives	13
Postmortems	15
Current Situation	16
Ground Zero	16
High Court Review	16
Outlook	19
Law of Averages?	19
Notes	20
Bibliography	21
2. Anti-Americanism: Is Anger at the U.S. Growing?			23
Is the United States the primary force behind globalization policies that harm other countries?			26
Is the United States threatening other cultures?			29
Is the “American Century” over?			31
Background			33
The Ungrateful Son			33
Religious Differences			36
Foreign Affairs Bully?			36
American Exceptionalism			37
Current Situation			38
Missteps and Failures			38
Support for Israel			40
A Good Neighbor?			40
Missed Opportunities			41
Outlook			41
Lasting Damage?			41
Notes			42
Bibliography			44
3. Religious Fundamentalism: Does It Lead to Intolerance and Violence?			47
Is religious fundamentalism on the rise?			52

iv CONTENTS

Is religious fundamentalism a reaction to Western permissiveness?	54	Should nonproliferation policy aim to eliminate all nuclear weapons?	113
Should religious fundamentalists have a greater voice in government?	56	Background	116
Background	59	Manhattan Project	116
‘Great Awakening’	59	Nonproliferation Efforts	120
Islamic Fundamentalism	64	Mushrooming Nukes	121
Fundamentalist Jews	65	Current Situation	121
Fundamentalism in India	68	Black Market Revealed	121
Current Situation	68	Bush’s Response	122
Political Battles	68	Outlook	123
Rising Violence	70	Crumbling Coalition?	123
Outlook	72	Foiling Nuclear Terror	125
More of the Same?	72	Notes	125
Notes	73	Bibliography	127
Bibliography	77	6. Terrorism and the Internet: Should Web Sites That Promote Terrorism Be Shut Down?	129
4. Hate Groups: Is Extremism on the Rise in the United States?	79	Should governments block terrorist Web sites?	132
Could the election of a black president and the nation’s economic crisis spark a resurgence of far-right political activity or violence?	83	Should Internet companies do more to stop terrorists’ use of the Web?	135
Are immigrants in danger from extremist violence?	84	Does cyberterrorism pose a serious threat?	136
Is right-wing and extremist speech encouraging hate crimes?	86	Background	139
Background	90	Growth and Evolution	139
Building Movements	90	From Web 1.0 to 2.0	141
Fighting and Killing	91	Terrorists and Cybercrime	143
Explosion and Aftermath	92	Current Situation	144
Current Situation	93	Alternative Voices	144
Hate in April	93	The Sakinah Campaign	146
Free Speech, Hate Speech	96	Government-funded Sites	148
Recruiting Veterans	97	Outlook	149
Outlook	99	Pooling Resources	149
Guns in Holsters	99	Notes	150
Notes	100	Bibliography	152
Bibliography	104	TERRORIST ENVIRONMENTS
5. Nuclear Proliferation and Terrorism: Can “Rogue” States and Terrorists Acquire Nuclear Weapons?	107	7. Understanding Islam: Is Islam Compatible With Western Values?	154
Is the Non-Proliferation Treaty still an effective shield against the spread of nuclear weapons?	109	Is Islam a religion that promotes violence?	159
Is the United States doing enough to halt nuclear proliferation?	112	Is Islam compatible with secular, pluralistic societies?	161
		Does Islam need a “reformation”?	163

Background	164	Questioning Integration	231
Two Faces of Islam	164	Changing Course	233
Islamist Movements	167	Muslim Schools	234
‘War on Terror’	169	Outlook	234
Current Situation	170	Encouraging Moderation	234
Muslim Identities	170	Notes	235
Religious Clashes	172	Bibliography	238
Outlook	173
Misunderstandings?	173	10. Global Jihad: Does a Terrorist Movement
Notes	174	Threaten the West?	241
Bibliography	176	Is there a global jihadist organization?	245
8. Crisis in Pakistan: Can the Fragile		Are the jihadists motivated by religion?	247
Democracy Survive?	179	Are Western governments
Can Pakistan control its		dealing effectively with the global radical militants?	184	jihadists?	248
Can democracy survive in Pakistan?	186	Background	249
Are Pakistan’s nuclear weapons secure?	189	Origins of Jihad	249
Background	190	Modern Islamism	251
Early Beginnings	190	Revolution	253
Quest for Democracy	191	U.S.-Jihadist Alliance	255
Taliban Gathers Strength	196	Anti-West Jihad	256
Current Situation	197	Current Situation	256
Fighting Intensifies	197	Goodbye ‘Londonistan’	256
Opposing the U.S.	197	Sleeper Cells?	258
Obama Optimism	198	Saudi Succession	259
Outlook	200	Outlook	260
Doomsday Scenarios	200	Limited Support	260
Notes	201	Notes	261
Bibliography	205	Bibliography	263
9. Radical Islam in Europe: Are Terrorists		11. Human Rights Issues:
Expanding Their Recruiting Efforts?	209	Are They a Low Priority Under
Has Europe’s terrorism been caused		President Obama?	265
by a failure to integrate Muslims		Is the Obama administration
into society?	216	deemphasizing human rights
Has Britain’s multiculturalism		in U.S. foreign policy?	269
fostered social isolation and		Is the Obama administration extremism?	218	reducing U.S. support for
Would cracking down on terrorism		democratization in other violate civil liberties?	220	countries?	272
Background	225	Was President Obama right to have
Muslim Migration	225	the United States join the
‘Londonistan’	228	United Nations Human Rights
Terrorist Attacks	229	Council?	276
Current Situation	230	Background	277
Worsening Threat	230	‘Unalienable’ Rights	277
Fertile Ground	231	Rights Commitments	278
		Rights Dichotomies	279

Current Situation	280	Outlook	331
Rights Policies in Flux	280	‘Time Is of the Essence’	331
Rights Treaties in Limbo	281	Notes	332
Outlook	283	Bibliography	334
Waiting for Results	283
Notes	285
Bibliography	286
KEEPING THE HOMELAND SECURE
12. Homeland Security: Is America Safe From Terrorism Today?	289	14. Policing the Borders: Can the United States Guard Against Terrorists?	337
Does al Qaeda remain a danger within the United States?	292	Can the United States track foreign visitors effectively?	339
Is the Department of Homeland Security set up effectively to spot potential threats?	294	Can the United States keep weapons of mass destruction out of the country?	341
Is the United States focusing anti-terrorism resources in the right places?	295	Should lawmakers create a new border security agency?	343
Background	296	Background	346
Mideast Conflict	296	Open-Door Policy	346
On U.S. Soil	297	Federal Controls	346
Al Qaeda	298	Growing Concern	348
Homeland Security	300	Sweeping New Laws	349
Current Situation	304	Current Situation	350
Testing Time	304	Administration Action	350
Back to Court	306	Congress Responds	352
Outlook	307	Outlook	353
The Next Generation	307	Civil Liberties	353
Notes	308	Notes	354
Bibliography	310	Bibliography	354
13. Port Security: Are New Anti-Terrorism Measures Adequate?	313	15. Interrogating the CIA: Should Its Role in Terrorism Cases Be Reexamined?	357
Are U.S. ports secure?	316	Should CIA agents be prosecuted for exceeding interrogation guidelines?	360
Should foreign firms be barred from operating cargo terminals in U.S. ports?	318	Should the CIA be allowed to use “enhanced interrogation techniques” when questioning “high-value” detainees?	362
Is the administration doing enough to improve port security abroad?	320	Should Congress authorize an in-depth investigation of past detention and interrogation practices?	364
Background	321	Background	365
Taxes and Smugglers	321	Eliciting the Truth	365
War on Terror	323	Mind Control	368
Current Situation	325	‘Using Any Means’	370
The Fast Track	325	Current Situation	372
Money Matters	330	Fighting Over Disclosure	372
		Getting to Trial?	374
		Outlook	375

Change and Continuity	375	Background	416
Notes	376	Laws of War	416
Bibliography	379	‘Military Justice’	418
		‘War on Terror’	419
16. Torture Debate: Is the U.S. War on Terror		Current Situation	422
Legitimizing Torture?	381	Allowing Coercion?	422
Is torture effective?	385	Other Prisoner Suits	424
Is torture ever justified?	387	Outlook	425
Have U.S. attitudes toward		‘Blistering Fight’	425
torture changed?	389	Notes	426
Background	391	Bibliography	429
Ancient Practice	391
Changing Norms	393
Democracies’ Experience	394	18. Prosecuting Terrorists: Should Suspected
Post-9/11 Crackdown	395	Terrorists Be Given Military or
Current Situation	398	Civil Trials?	431
Rendition Fallout	398	Should suspected terrorists be
Suing Torturers	400	tried in civilian courts?	434
The ‘Black Sites’	401	Should suspected terrorists be
Outlook	401	tried in military tribunals?	435
No Panaceas	401	Should some Guantánamo
Notes	402	detainees be held indefinitely
Bibliography	405	without trial?	436
		Background	438
17. Treatment of Detainees: Are Suspected		Power and Precedent	438
Terrorists Being Treated Unfairly?	407	Challenge and Response	439
Should Congress require wartime		Change and Continuity	441
detainees to be treated according		Current Situation	444
to the Geneva Conventions?	410	Watching Appeals	444
Should Common Article 3 apply to		Making a Deal?	448
CIA prisoners held in undisclosed		Outlook	449
locations in other countries?	412	Bringing Justice to Bear	449
Should the U.S. outlaw “extraordinary		Notes	450
rendition”?	414	Bibliography	452